

FOSTERING HOPE FOR A BETTER TOMORROW

By taking time to learn from the past, we can foster hope for a fair and just future for all members of society. Thanks to the Civil Liberties Celebration Honorary Committee for its vital work preserving the experience of Japanese Americans and teaching our community the value of all people.

